Your Privacy is Our Concern

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our customers or former customers, except as permitted by law.

When you apply to Occidental Fire & Casualty Co. of NC for any type of insurance, you disclose information about yourself to us. The collection, use and disclosure of such information is regulated by law. Occidental Fire & Casualty Co. of NC, its agents', affiliates and subsidiaries maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with state and federal regulations to guard your personal information.

Occidental Fire & Casualty Co. of NC obtains most of our information directly from you. The application you complete, as well as any additional information you provide, generally gives us most of the information we need to know. We may use information about you from your other transactions with us, our affiliates, or others.

Depending on the nature of your insurance transaction, we may need additional information about you or other individuals proposed for coverage. For property coverages, we may send someone to inspect your property and verify information about its value and condition. A photo of any property to be insured might be taken. We may review insurance claims information and other loss information reports, and we may also obtain medical or financial information to adjust some claims.

We may obtain the additional information we need from third parties, such as other insurance companies, government agencies, information clearinghouses, courts and other public records. We may receive consumer credit information from a consumer-reporting agency. The information that we collect about you is used in evaluating your insurance coverage, rates, servicing your policy, and settling claims.

Occidental Fire & Casualty Co. of NC does not share any non-public information about you unless permitted by law. If you have questions about what information we may have on file and/or our privacy policy you may contact us at the address below.
