Notes:

Owner / customer acknowledges that he/she has read and received a complete legible copy of this agreement and hereby authorizes the Contractor to proceed with the work in accordance with the terms herein. Owner / customer has reviewed and understands the General Conditions and has been provided a copy of the General Conditions affecting the work for this project, including the granting of a limited warranty by R & W Kitchen Cabinets, Inc.. The Owner shall be protected by all warranties running directly to him from material suppliers and subcontractors. The above price is based upon the stated dimension and current costs and does not include the cost of additional labor or materials, unless otherwise stated, for the preparation or repair of rotted wood or any other services needed to improve unseen defects for the attachment of the improvements or for change in design or structure to rectify conditions encountered in the field upon installation. We do not move electronic equipment. Computers, televisions and other electronics must be moved clear from the work area prior to the commencement of work and covered and protected from construction dust contamination. Computers and other electronic equipment should be turned off during work to prevent internal fans from drawing in contaminants from inherent construction dust associated with this type of remodeling project.

Contractor reserves the right to revise the above price based upon unseen issues that would hinder proper safe installation of work and products purchased and / or increase in costs of materials and labor, if installation is not commenced within 30 days of the date of this agreement. Purchaser shall pay the revised purchase price which shall not exceed 25% of the proposed price. Labor and / or material warranties are non-transferable unless extended by R & W kitchen Cabinets, Inc.. The prices, specifications and conditions contained above and in the General Conditions are accepted. Payment will be made as outlined above.
