According to Florida's construction Lien Law (sections 713.001-713.37, Florida statutes), those who work on your property or provide materials and are not paid in full have a right to enforce their claim for payment against your property. This claim is known as a construction lien. If your contractor or a subcontractor fails to pay subcontractors or material suppliers or neglects to make other legally required payments, the people who are owed money may look to your property for payment, even if you have paid your contract in full. If you fail to pay your contractor, your contractor may also have a lien on your property. This means if a lien is filed your property could be sold against your will to pay for labor, materials, or other services that your contractor or a subcontractor may have failed to pay. To protect yourself, you should stipulate in this contract that before any payment is made your contractor is required to provide you with a written release of lien from any person or company that has provided to you a "notice to owner." Florida's construction lien law is complex and it is recommended that, whenever a specific problem arises, you consult an attorney.

Acceptance of proposal- The above prices, specifications and conditions are satisfactory and are hereby accepted. You are authorized to do the work specified. Payment will be made as outlined above.
